What Is Income Withholding?

Income withholding is an administrative or court ordered deduction of child, spousal and/or medical support obligations from a parent's income.

Employers receive a JFS 04047 "Order/Notice To Withhold Income For Child and Spousal Support" which details specific withholding information.

The employer (or other source of income, i.e., banks, unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, etc.) deducts the specified amount each pay period and sends the payment to the Ohio Child Support Payment Central (CSPC).

What Are The Employer's Basic Responsibilities?

- Begin withholding the amount indicated in the JFS 04047 by no later than the first pay period that falls 14 business days after the date on the order.
- Send the amount withheld to Ohio Child Support Payment Central no later than seven business days after the obligor is paid wages.
- Notify the county Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) when the employer is no longer paying an employee/obligor (resignation, termination, layoff, retirement, etc.)

How Do I Know How Much To Withhold?

The amount to withhold follows the terms of the JFS04047 and cannot exceed the employee's allowable disposable income:

This is an Order/Notice to Withhold Income law, you are required to deduct these amounts from the above-name notice. If checked, you are required to enroll the child(ren) identi available through the employee's/obligor's employment and to in lapses in coverage. 600.00 per month in current support 120.00 per month in past-due support Arrears per month in medical support . 00 per month Subtotal (for Ohio Bureau of Emp 720.00 per month in other (specify) 720.00 per month to be forwarded for a Total of $

What is the Consumer Credit Protection Act?

- The CCPA establishes limits for income withholding not to exceed:
 - 50% of the noncustodial parent's disposable earnings if he/she is supporting a spouse, dependent child or both, other than a party in the support order.
 - 60% of the noncustodial parent's disposable earnings if he/she is not supporting someone else.
- The Act also allows for an additional 5% to be withheld above the maximum amount permitted if the noncustodial parent is twelve (12) or more weeks in arrearage.

What If The Employee Has Multiple Orders?

 Ohio Law: Prorate the amount due when two or more support orders are received for the employee, which when combined exceed the limits of the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

Refer to JFS 04047 for calculation guidelines

PORT What If The Employee Has Multiple Orders?

Case 1 Ordered Amount = $78

Case 2 Ordered Amount = $80

Amount Withheld (Due to CCPA) = $100

Amount Withheld (100)

Total Amount Ordered (158)

= .6329

Case 1 - $78 \times .6329 = 49.37

Case 2 - $80 \times .6329 = 50.63

What Do I Do If I Intend To Pay a Lump Sum?

- Notify the county CSEA no later than the earlier of 45 days before the lump sum payment is to be made, or the date on which the determination to pay the lump sum is made.
- Hold the lump sum payment for 30 days after the date on which it would otherwise be paid
- Upon order of the court or CSEA, pay all or a specified amount of the lump sum to CSPC.

How Do I Prioritize Multiple Deductions?

- Withholding under the JFS04047 has priority over any other legal process under State law against the same income.
- EXCEPTION: Federal tax levies in effect before receipt of the order have priority.
