

Kelly L. Dell'Anno, M.Ed., CHES, IC®
Health Management Coordinator
Group Benefits, Middle Market

Kelly L Dell'Anno is a Health Management Coordinator at Oswald Companies. She has 2 years experience in Health Management.

Before working at Oswald Companies, Kelly worked in direct worksite wellness at NASA Glenn Research Center and as a health coach at Slim & Fit. She also has 4 ½ year's experience working in social services with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Cleveland.

Achievements

- Meets with new clients to develop overall health management strategy.
- Transitions clients from strategy development to health management implementation.
- Uses health risk data, environmental audit, health perceptions and attitude surveys and goals of integrated health management develop strategy for client.
- Develops integrated health incentives programs for clients.
- Assesses population health risks utilizing health risk appraisals/screenings.
- Creates cohesive wellness teams.
- Crafts strategic & tactical health management operating plans.
- Designs communications content & delivery strategies.
- Develops innovation Health Education presentations
- Evaluates results using both process & outcome measures.

Education and Professional Affiliations

Mrs. Dell'Anno is a graduate of Cleveland State University and Kent State University. She received a Bachelor of Science in Human Development and Family Studies from Kent State University in 2006, and a Master's of Education degree in Community Health Education from Cleveland State University in 2010. She received the designations of Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES) in October 2010 and Intrinsic Coach (IC®) in 2011.